ACTIVATION: Step 2

All will see this page upon selecting “Create Account”.

The screenshot shows the 'Sign Up' page for The New York Times. The page title is 'The New York Times' and the main heading is 'Sign Up'. Below the heading, there is a link for 'Log in here' and a note stating 'You must use an email address associated with a participating school.' The form contains three input fields: 'Email Address', 'Password', and 'Retype Password'. Below the form, there is a question 'Are You a Student or Faculty/Staff?' with two radio button options: 'Student' and 'Faculty/Staff'. At the bottom of the form is an 'Expected Graduation' field. Two yellow arrows point from a text box on the left to the 'Email Address' and 'Password' fields.

Enter @college.edu
Email address

Create and confirm your password

TIP!!

If existing NYTimes.com account uses another email on account, please go to NYTimes.com and change to the @college.edu on My Account page.

Then log out of NYTimes.com.
And CLOSE WEB BROWSER.
Go to www.NYTimes.com/Pass,
Select “Log in here>>”
Use new .edu email and same pw.

EMAIL VALIDATION

FOR ADMINISTRATORS: To verify that users are accessing Academic Passes with an authorized email domain, the New York Times sends users a verification email when they claim a pass for the first time. To avoid having our email blocked by resident spam software, we recommend that your IT department “whitelist” the nytimes.com domain or better yet, “whitelist” these IP addresses our emails come from: NYT Email IP Addresses 170.149.174.71 170.149.174.72 170.149.174.73 170.149.174.74 170.149.168.71 170.149.168.72 170.149.168.73 170.149.168.74
