2021-2022 Dependency Override Request Form

The Department of Education determines a student's status as dependent or independent by the answers the students provides on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). To be considered independent of your parents for financial aid purposes, you must prove that one of the following is true:

- Be born before January 01, 1998; or
- Be a graduate or professional student; or
- Be married on the day you apply for financial aid (being separated still counts as being married); or
- You have children who receive more than half of their support from you; or
- You have dependents other than children who live with you and receive more than half of their support from you; or
- You are an orphan (both parents are deceased); or
- You were a ward of the court until age 18 or were a foster child after the age of 13; or
- You were/are in legal guardianship; or
- You were /are an emancipated minor; or
- You are an accompanied youth who was homeless or at risk of homelessness on or after July 1, 2020; or
- You are serving active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces (other than training) or a U.S. Armed Forces veteran; or
- You have special and unusual extenuating circumstances that can be DOCUMENTED for your financial aid administrators, who may then request a "dependency override" on the FAFSA application.
(NOTE: Exceptions are granted very rarely and only in extreme cases.)

If NONE of the above criteria apply to you, you are a DEPENDENT student.

IMPORTANT:

Many students feel that they should be able to declare INDEPENDENT status because they live on their own, file their own taxes, or receive no support from their parents, but those reasons will not constitute as extenuating circumstances to merit a dependency override. Unfortunately, the Department of Education is extremely strict with regard to determining dependency status.

DIRECTIONS: After reading the information above carefully, if you feel you can substantiate an extenuating circumstance, then complete this form and the Third Party Verification Form and submit it to the Financial Aid Office (FAO). Your request will be reviewed by the FAO. Committee.

THE FINANCIAL AID COMMITTEE DECISION IS CONSIDERED FINAL AND CANNOT BE APPEALED
